NYC NEIGHBORHOOD
LIBRARY AWARDS

Nomination Form

Made possible through a collaboration by the Stavros Niarchos Foundation and Charles H. Revson Foundation, in association with WNYC's Brian Lehrer Show

The 4th annual NYC Neighborhood Library Awards celebrate the essential role of New York City's 207 public libraries in communities across the Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and Staten Island. Since the City's neighborhoods are very diverse and each library is unique, we are asking you: Tell us why your library should win a NYC Neighborhood Library Award!

The five winning libraries will be chosen based on nominations sent in by New Yorkers like you. Nominate your neighborhood library today—and it could win $20,000! Each winner will use the award funds to make New Yorkers' favorite libraries even better.

Explain why your library branch should win this award, using examples that made a difference in your life. Tell us your story. The winners will be chosen based on your responses; all information and remarks provided through this form may be used for judging, publicity, or other purposes. For more information on the Awards visit www.NYCLibraryAwards.org or call (212) 935-3340 ext. 0. Nominations will be accepted from February 7th until March 13th, 2017.
